PMI Academic Sponsored Research Program Request for Proposals

Application Dates: 17 February – 25 April 2021

PMI invites proposals from scholars both within and outside the field of project management, and/or it's sub-fields, whose themes and perspectives have direct application to some aspect of the project management body of knowledge or its practice. Scholars must be part of an accredited colleges/universities or non-profit research institute.

For more information on how to apply, please review the application guidelines and contact the PMI Academics Department at SponsoredResearch@pmi.org

Apply Today!

While this is an open call for research in the field of project management, special consideration will be given to proposals that address the following topics:

· How diversity impacts project team's performance

· Impact of gender equality/ inequality (e.g. in compensations) on organizational performance and employee

· How organizations and talent management transform by 2030

· Future industry organizational trends with a particular interest in the use of hyper-agility in industry

· The transformation of the user's role in the work place and the use of Citizen Development

Project Management Institute.